Happy New Year!

It was lovely to welcome all the children back in to school this week after the Christmas holidays. I hope you all had a super time over the festive period with your families and friends.

Today, Father Shaun visited school. He came in to our whole school collective worship about King Solomon and his wise words, which we can find in the book of proverbs. Seb was chosen as King Solomon and we held a game show style quiz, where children had to give a thumbs up, or down, depending on whether the words were wise or foolish. Our worship challenge this week is to use our wisdom to set a New Year's Resolution. I wonder what yours would be?

Father Shaun then went out to see the children having fun at break time. He also spoke to staff in the staffroom over a cup of coffee. We have discussed introducing the Parish Eucharist service in school to which we will invite community members, so do watch out for this on the school newsletter.

We look forward to school and church working closely together in the future.

Have a lovely weekend when it arrives, and keep warm!
