

Headteacher Blog – Thursday 7th March 2024

Time: 15:00

Well, I really don't know where to start! This week has been simply fabulous. At the start of the week, we had the storyteller, Rogan Mills in school, entertaining us with his stories.

We also had a very special visit from the Bishop of Blackburn, Bishop Philip! We see him most weeks on the large screen in our hall as he joins us for worship, but today, we got to see him in the flesh! He entertained us enormously with his Bible storytelling and his teaching. Head Boy and Head Girl gave him a guided tour of our fantastic school grounds; he even had homemade cake in the staffroom whilst drinking coffee and talking to the teachers. We were very sad to see him go, but cannot wait until we see him again.

Today was World Book Day and we came into school dressed in a colour. Mrs Watson and Mrs Dawson organised some fantastic activities for us which ended in a whole school Kahoot quiz. What a busy week.

I think the staff and children will need a rest tomorrow!
