Well, I am simply lost for words.

Today we trialled our very first colour run. This is a fun run event where children (and staff) are showered with colour powder at various points throughout the course. Our course was the track which runs around the exterior of our school field. Volunteers from our 'Friends' association threw paint at everyone as they passed by them.

The finale was a 'gunging' event, where children pelted Mr Kilgallon, Mr Williams, and Steve with gunge. I am sure there will be a lot of water used this evening!

What a memorable day!
